

Overview

Janani Shishu Suraksha Karyakram (JSSK) was launched on 1st June 2011 to eliminate out-of-pocket expenses for pregnant women and sick newborns in government health institutions. It supplements the cash assistance provided under Janani Suraksha Yojana (JSY) by ensuring free and cashless services at the point of care.

The scheme covers all pregnant women and sick newborns (up to 30 days after birth) who visit government health facilities.

Important Notes

- JSSK is completely free — no payment of any kind should be demanded
- If any government facility asks for payment, complain to the District Health Officer or NHM helpline
- Works together with JSY — JSSK gives free services, JSY gives cash incentive
- ASHA workers can help arrange transport and accompany women to facilities
- Even if you don't have Aadhaar or any ID, you cannot be denied services under JSSK
